

Enrolling in General Chemistry I Next Semester?

Take the General Chemistry Readiness Assessment Test (GCAT)

WHO: All students planning on enrolling in CHEM 2031 General Chemistry I lecture MUST take the General Chemistry Readiness Assessment Test (GCAT) before the start of the semester.

The earlier the better!

WHAT: The GCAT is an assessment test to evaluate whether or not you are ready for General Chemistry I

- Online
- Open-book
- Timed
- Multiple Choice
- Covers material from your high school chemistry course

HOW: You can take the GCAT via Canvas now:
