I certify that I am aware that my student has enrolled in CU Succeed courses at their high school for which they are eligible to receive credit from CU Denver. I understand that my student's grades will be recorded on an official CU Denver transcript, and that these grades will become a part of their permanent academic record at the University of Colorado. I am aware that, unless my student's school/district has an agreement with CU Denver to pay the tuition of these courses, I am financially responsible to CU Denver for payment of said tuition. Tuition will be due unless the student drops the course with CU by the deadline. This is not a permission slip; if your student registered for CU Succeed credit online, they will remain enrolled in the course, regardless of receipt of this form.

Instructors: Courses are taught by high school teachers who have been approved by a CU Denver academic department, or by CU Denver adjunct faculty placed in your high school.

Transfer of Credits: CU Succeed courses earn college credits on an official CU Denver transcript. These credits apply to degree programs at CU Denver, and may be transferred to other colleges and universities.

Order a transcript on our website:
ucdenver.edu/transcripts (You will need your student ID! Make sure you write it down, or save it somewhere!)

CU Denver cannot guarantee that all courses will transfer to all institutions, nor will it refund tuition for courses that do not transfer.

Affordability: Tuition for CU Succeed courses is $77 per credit hour, a fraction of the cost of on-campus courses.

PARENT INFORMATION

Concurrent enrollment is an excellent opportunity for students who are academically ready to take on college-level course work. There are vast differences between high school courses and college courses; there are also differences in the information that we can share with parents. As this is a college program, students are treated as college students, and we can't discuss student information with anyone other than the student themselves. Please visit our Parent Information webpage for a more thorough explanation of the kind of interaction you can expect from our office, as well as the expectations placed upon your student.
