

Denver Writing Project Summer Institute 2026 – Application Instructions and Information
Those interested in applying should send to Kyle.Crawford@UCDenver.edu:

1) A personal statement that addresses the following:

- What do you enjoy about teaching writing, or/and what is a core belief that you possess about the teaching of writing? (We believe all teachers, every grade, every discipline, are teachers of writing).
- As a result of participating in the Denver Writing Project SI, how are you hoping to grow as a writer? As a teacher of writing?

2) A current resume or CV

Selection Process - Applications will be reviewed by the Director of the Denver Writing Project and decisions will be given promptly. The SI is capped at 12 participants.

Application deadline is April 6th, 2026

Please email applications and/or any questions to:

Kyle.Crawford@ucdenver.edu

The 2026 Summer Institute (SI) will meet on the Auraria Campus at CU Denver for 6 morning sessions: June 9th, 10th, 11th, & 16th, 17th, 18th from 9am – 12pm. Parking costs are covered.

There is a pre-institute, introductory meeting on Monday, April 20th via Zoom from 5pm – 6:30pm. During this meeting, we will go over program details, set norms, discuss deliverables*, choose books, and enroll everyone for 3 English, graduate credit hours (ENGL 5110).

*There are 3 deliverables, items due at the end of the course to receive credit and a grade:

- 1) A best practice in the teaching of writing that you value shared in the DWP SI group folder, due June 22nd.
- 2) A personal piece of writing of your choosing, any genre, content of your choosing, due July 13th. This could be a writing project that you bring with you this summer, and/or you will see three inspiring presentations by professional writers, so often personal writing comes from these presentations.
- 3) A professional piece of writing that discusses your core belief/s about the teaching of writing, due July 13th.

Eligibility - Educators in any capacity at public or private schools, K-16, any discipline. We seek participants who possess a professional commitment to the teaching of writing and related literacy activities, and a personal commitment to developing as a writer.