COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER

ENGLISH WRITING MAJOR

English Writing Major Code: EWRT

General Requirements: Students majoring in English Writing (EWRT) must complete 36 hours in EWRT. 30 hours must be earned in upper-division courses. Courses completed with a grade of C- (1.7) or better will be counted toward the major; none of the 36 hours may be taken pass/fail. A minimum of 15 upper-division hours of work in the EWRT major must be taken with the CU Denver English faculty. Students may not count more than 56 hours in the English department toward graduation. Double majors in EWRT and ENGL are exempt (and are required to complete 63 hours).

Advanced Standing: CLEP and AP credit will not count toward the English Major or English Writing Major. Such credit is awarded at the 1000 level may apply toward the College writing requirement (ENGL1020) or counted as general electives. Check with CLAS Advising for more details.

Minors: The English Department also offers a minor in Literature, Writing, Creative Writing and Film Studies. Courses counted in a minor cannot be counted toward the major.

Honors Program: Latin honors may be earned by working individually with a EWRT professor. Speak to a professor or see handouts regarding honors in the English Department (1015 9th Street Park). Internships are available for students who have completed over 60 credit hours and count toward upper-division electives in the EWRT major. Visit CU Denver's Experiential Learning Center (ELC) for more information (Tivoli 260). A faculty sponsor is required for all internships.

Note: This EWRT major will appear in the university course catalog in Fall 2018. We suggest all majors follow these guidelines, which coordinate with current and future offerings. If you declare your EWRT major before Fall 2018, please let your EWRT advisor know if you have a need or desire to follow the previous EWRT major guidelines.
