Teaching Assistant Opportunities

Teaching assistants in the Department of English at CU Denver teach at least one section of ENGL 1020 - Core Composition I per semester. Teaching assistants must enroll in ENGL 5913 - Practicum in Language and Rhetoric during the fall of their first semester of teaching. Teaching experience is not required.

Teaching assistants must attend a paid ($400), five-day orientation session during the week before the fall semester begins. The current stipend for teaching one section of ENGL 1020 is $3,258 per semester. Screening of applications begins March 10 and continues until positions are filled. (Note that we do not offer any graduate tuition waivers.)

To apply for a CU Denver English teaching assistantship, please submit:
1. A CV (curriculum vitae).
2. A cover letter expressing your interest in teaching, as well as any experience or qualifications you consider relevant.

Please email your application to:

Professor Nancy Ciccone
University of Colorado Denver
English Department
Campus Box 175
P.O. Box 173364
Denver, CO 80217-3364
nancy.ciccone@ucdenver.edu

Professor Rodney Herring
University of Colorado Denver
Professor Rodney Herring
English Department
Campus Box 175
P.O. Box 173364
Denver, CO 80217-3364
rodney.herring@ucdenver.edu