

Ethnic Studies

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER

Core Courses

Official Course Descriptions

ETST 2000- INTRO TO ETHNIC STUDIES – Offered Spring Semester 2019

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

Multi-disciplinary survey of contemporary and historical research analyses of the diverse social, economic, political and cultural facets of African American, American Indian, Asian American and Latino communities and cultures.

ETST 2155- AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY- Offered Spring Semester 2019

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

Surveys the history of African Americans. Study interpretations, and analysis of major problems, issues, and trends affecting the African American population from pre-slavery to present.

ETST 3704- CULTURE, RACISM, AND ALIENATION- Offered Spring Semester 2019

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

The effects of racism on the personality of participants in racist cultures.

ETST 3036- AMERICAN INDIAN CULTURAL IMAGES-

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

Analysis of images and perceptions of American Indians in American culture, as seen in politics, education, film, photography, advertising, art, literature and the media.

ETST 3130 INDIGENIOUS STUDIES-

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

Examines how communities in diverse world regions preserve tradition, share knowledge, and respond to influences both within and outside of their immediate environments.

ETST 3272 GLOBAL MEDIA- Offered Spring Semester 2019

(3 credits- Fulfills Social Science requirements)

Introduction to leading issues in the study of transnational media. The course will focus on transnational media. The course will focus on the global media environment in the early 21st century, diverse countries, a variety of media and social issues.

