Catalog Editing Timeline

10/30: Catalog Pages Sent to CLAS Coordinators

11/6: Catalog pages sent to first-step department editors

12/11: Catalog pages due back to CLAS Coordinators

This means that all catalog pages must have gone through ALL department workflow steps and the last department workflow editor has pushed the pages back to CLAS Final Review*

12/12 - 1/18: CLAS Final Review processes all catalog pages, reaching out to departments if there are any inconsistencies, denied changes, needed changes, etc.

12/19: All Catalog pages due to Registrar's office

Catalog Workflow/Roles

For a list of all catalog pages, their specific workflows, and who is assigned to each role, please look at the CLAS Catalog Master Log.

Catalog Do's and Don'ts

DO's: See below for all parts of the catalog pages department editors are allowed to edit:

1. On your main department pages, you may edit the Overview and Faculty tabs
2. On each program page (degrees, certificates, minors, etc), you may edit the Overview tab. You may also request that we (CLAS coordinators) make changes to your elective's lists, without needing to go through EPCC.

Examples:

1 – you may edit text on both the Overview and Faculty pages on your department's Main page

2 – You may edit the Overview tab on any program pages

DONT's: See below for all parts of the catalog pages department editors are not allowed to edit and why.

1. Any other tabs in the catalog are off limits for editing. During CLAS Final Review, CLAS Coordinators will deny any changes made to tabs that are not explicitly listed above.
 - a. Changes to the Courses tab on a department's main page are connected to changes made to courses, which must be approved by EPCC
 - b. Changes made to the Degree Requirements tab on program pages are connected to program and/or course changes, and those must be approved by EPCC as well.
2. If you have any questions or doubts about which tabs you are/aren't allowed to edit, please reach out to CLAS.courses@ucdenver.edu.

Philosophy

Philosophy (PHIL)

PHIL 1012 - Truth, Reality, and the Good Life: Introduction to Philosophy (3 Credits)
 We're commonly told to "do the right thing," and everybody seems to agree that we should. But what is right? What is wrong? How can we see and know the difference? This course helps students examine and analyze the ethical concepts, situations, and problems raised by these fundamental questions. Specific problems will vary with contemporary concerns, e.g., poverty, war, injustice, famine, abortion, punishment, and environmental sustainability. The course goal is to help students sharpen their ethical reasoning skills so they can better navigate and contribute to the ethical, social, and political arenas in which they will live their

The Programs and Courses tabs on department's main pages are updated via EPCC approval processes and are off-limits during catalog editing.

Ethics Minor

General Requirements

Students must satisfy all requirements as outlined below and by the department offering the minor.

- Click here for information about Academic Policies

Program Requirements

1. Students must complete a minimum of 15 credit hours approved for the minor.
2. Students must complete a minimum of six upper-division (3000-level and above) PHIL credit hours.
3. Students must earn a minimum grade of C- (1.7) in all courses that apply to the minor and must achieve a minimum cumulative minor GPA of 2.0. All graded attempts in required and elective courses are calculated in the minor GPA. Courses taken using P+/P/F or S/U grading cannot apply to minor requirements.
4. Students must complete a minimum of nine PHIL credit hours with CU Denver faculty.

Program Restrictions, Allowances and Recommendations

1. For those students who major in philosophy, up to two courses can satisfy the requirements for both programs.
2. Religious Studies courses cannot be used to fulfill the requirements for the minor.

The Degree Requirements tab on any program page is updated through the EPCC approval process and is off limits during the catalog editing process.
