

Christan G. Bartsch

EDUCATION

University of Colorado Denver Campus (August 2016 – present)

Degree: Doctorate in Health and Behavioral Science

The George Washington University (May 2010-May 2013)

Degree: Masters in Public Health and Masters in Health Sciences, Physician Assistant

Graduation: May 2013, GPA 3.89

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, NC (August 2005-May 2009)

Major: BA Psychology - Member of National Society of Collegiate Scholars and Gamma Sigma Alpha Academic Honor Society

Universidad Catolica de Valparaíso Fall 2008 (July-December 2008)

Spanish Study Abroad Immersion Program in Valparaíso, Chile

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus; Aurora, CO

GI Surgical Oncology Physician Assistant; September 2014-present

- Manage patients in STICU and on the surgical floor post-operatively through daily physical exams, ordering and interpreting appropriate laboratory studies, managing post-operative complications and medication management
- Coordinated discharge medication orders, follow-up and patient education post-operatively
- Evaluation, treatment and management pre-operatively and post-operatively in GI surgical clinic following patient discharge
- Directly lead and involved in surgical quality improvement initiatives for pancreatic and esophageal patients; implemented post-operative pathways for these surgical patients and directly involved in resident and nursing education

University of Maryland Medical Center; Baltimore, MD

NeuroCritical Care Physician Assistant; October 2013-August 2014

- Managed patients in NeuroICU through daily physical exams, ordered and interpreted labs and imaging studies, formulated treatment plans as part of a multi-disciplinary team and initiated emergency interventions to stabilize patients
- Performed therapeutic and diagnostic procedures, including central and arterial lines, thoracentesis and lumbar punctures
- Provided family center care, including patient and family education, counseling and led family centered meetings

Central Dermatology Center; Chapel Hill, NC

Back Office Medical Assistant; August 2009-May 2010

- Checked in patients, and assisted physicians with biopsies and surgical procedures
- Educated patients about treatment, test results and answer any medical questions from the patients
- Performed nursing procedures including suture removal, dressing changing, wound care and venipuncture

The Family Doctor; Chapel Hill, NC

Pre-Medical Intern; February 2009-August 2009

- Responsible for and assisted with patient check-in and taking patients' vitals. Perform blood and urine tests; also place orders for out of clinic blood, urine and culture tests

Honduras Mission Medical Trip

Medical Volunteer; August 2008

- Traveled with a group of OB-GYN medical doctors; directly participated in surgery and delivery

CREDENTIALS

-
- | | |
|--|------|
| ▪ Basic Care Life Support and Advanced Care Life Support | 2015 |
|--|------|

AFFILIATIONS

-
- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| ▪ American Academy of Physician Assistants | May 2010 – Present |
|--|--------------------|

HONORS

-
- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| • Alpa Eta Honor Society | The George Washington School of Medicine and Health Sciences |
|--------------------------|--|

RESEARCH

| | |
|--|---------------------------|
| We Can! A Community Based Approach of a National Campaign to Reduce Childhood Obesity | February 2011 – June 2012 |
|--|---------------------------|

- Research for thesis for Masters in Public Health. Performed qualitative and quantitative data analysis of a community oriented outreach program to reduce childhood Obesity. Research was presented at the AAP National Conference, 2012.

SKILLS

Proficient in Spanish, skilled in Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point, comfortable with public speaking and strong interpersonal skills