

Description

Part time position to support the Radiation Safety division at the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus. Individual will receive training necessary to perform all expected tasks. Flexible work schedule and a great opportunity for students to work alongside professionals in the Environmental Health and Safety field at a premier research university in Aurora, Colorado.

Responsibilities: Radiation Safety

- Data entry and updating signage
- Weekly radiation surveys
- Spot checks of laboratories
- Processing and delivering radioactive materials packages
- Other duties as assigned

Minimum Qualifications:

- Completed at least sophomore level coursework in Environmental Health, Chemistry, Biology, Physics, or a related field. Individuals will receive all the necessary training before handling any hazardous materials.
- REQUIRED: Experience with Microsoft Office software, especially Excel and Word
- DESIRABLE Experience in research laboratory

Necessary Special Qualifications:

- Must pass a background check
- Must be willing and able to physically handle hazardous materials (hazardous chemicals, radioactive isotopes, infectious agents, biohazardous waste, etc.) and lift and carry up to 50 lbs.

Compensation Range:

$15 per hour.

Contact information:

Email resume and availability to drake.masterson@cuanschutz.edu