

National History Day in Colorado
and
Denver Firefighters Museum
present

"Firefighters Built this City"

The first in NHDC's
"Everything has a History"
showcase series

A Film Festival Event

Featuring

2018 State Winning NHDC Documentaries
Museum Director's Tour

by Executive Director, Jamie Wilms

Happy Hour & Hors d'Oeuvres

Saturday, February 16, 2019

2:00 pm - 5:00 pm
Denver Firefighters Museum
1326 Tremont Place
Denver, CO 80204

Tickets: $20

Details

Featuring NHDC Student Documentaries

"Governor Ralph L. Carr: The Conflict and Compromise of the Japanese in America"

Spencer Henry, Witt Young & George Bowdouris

Denver School of the Arts

Teacher: Ed Glassman

2018 State Contest 3rd Place, Junior Group Documentary

"Dalton Trumbo and the Red Scare: The Conflict in Compromising His Freedom for His Beliefs"

Tate McDonald

Broomfield Heights Middle School

Teachers: Paula Coffman & Michael Sparks

2018 State Champion, Junior Individual Documentary

"Rocky Flats: Uncovering the Cover-Up"

Eva Murdock, Presley Church, Madison Fischer, Leah Yonemoto-Weston & Jordan Appel

Boulder High School

Teacher: Dana Cooksey

2018 State Champion, Senior Group Documentary

"The Radium Girls: How Thousands of Women Revolutionized Workplace Safety"

Chloe O'Neill

Denver School of the Arts

Teacher: Ed Glassman

2018 State Contest 3rd Place, Junior Individual Documentary

"Sexual Slavery: The Horrors of the Korean Comfort Women"

Madelyn Deakin & Mika Green

Erie High School

Teacher: Ted Goodwin

National Finalists, Senior Group Documentary

Paid parking is available at the parking lot directly across the street, as well as at surrounding street meters.

For questions or more information, please contact event sponsors:

Denver Firefighters Museum

303.892.1436

jamie@denverfirefightersmuseum.org

National History Day in Colorado

303.315.1789

nhdc@ucdenver.edu

