- Effective oral and written communication skills
- Professional demeanor
- Demonstrable general knowledge in the humanities and language arts
- Pass a background check
- Have sophomore, junior, or senior standing or be a graduate student

How Do I Apply?

There will be five to ten openings for the internship. You do not need to be a history major. Students must apply and submit an internship packet to the state office by November 2nd. Selected students seeking college credit must sign up for HIST 4850-History in Community (Undergraduate) or HIST 5939- Internship (Graduate), on the spring schedule. It is an independent study “practicum” with 1-3 credit hours of history credit. Contact the NHDC Office for more information.
